

I do NOT support the elimination of existing media ownership regulations.

Our media needs more diversity, not a consolidation into a few sources reporting the same perspective. We must allow for the opportunity of these differing perspectives to be heard, and it seems by eliminating ownership rules, we will allow for the monopoly of news information (and this would quite "un-American").

Thank you.